Bay. I lowered my boat and pulled in to the Bay for wood. I found a gang of natives there from other Islands, they are brought here to make Cocoanut oil or employed by white men for that business. Barque Wallabie of Hobart Town in trying to get in to the Bay was taken a Shore by the Current six weeks ago, She had one hundred and 80 bbls of Sperm. The Governor bought her and has got her in to the Bay and have got her most ready for Sea. The Barques Crew have gone to Hobart Town. This Bay is about 10 miles in diameter full of Coral rocks and Surrounded by a narrow Strip of land, covered with trees. Plenty of Cocoanuts and wood, the wood burns well but not lasting. There was a Dutch Ship here yesterday for wood, She has been taken off to the Westward by the Current, She is out of Sight and the Governor is on board of her. I got a boat load of wood and pulled for the Ship, She was currented Some miles to the Leeward of the passage. At 6 I was along Side.
